a ton at Baltimore. In 1899, under the grinding coal tariff, it sold for a ton at the same point.

$2.50

WILDCAT BANKING.

Washington Post.—The Zimri Dwiglins brand of nerve would incorporate a fog bank.

A CANADIAN VIEW.

Montreal Herald.—The Gary law was passed to catch votes and seems to have gathered up more dilemmas than ballots.

WHERE SILENCE WOULD BE GOLDEN.

Cole Democrat.—The Republican party has done enough for Clarkson to entitle it to his silence for several years to come.

DEMOCRACY.

Chicago Inter Ocean.—Democrats are divided into four factions, "Tariff reformers," "Tariff smashers," "Income taxers" and "breakfast table taxers."

ADDING INJURY TO INSULT.

Detroit Journal.—A good deal of gossip, not to say scandal, has been provoked by the talk of the excessive audacity of the ornamental figures in the World's Fair Buildings. But the excitement is still greater now that it is learned that they are so high up that an opera glass is required to tell just how nude they are.

WHAT TO DO.

New York Press.—It might be a good plan for the Department of State to refer the question of etiquette surrounding the reception of the Infanta Eulalie to a commission composed of Ward McAllister and Governor Pennoyer of Oregon. When their decision is rendered it would be safe for President Cleveland and Secretary Gresham to do just the opposite thing.

THE PRESIDENT'S ORDER.

Philadelphia Bulletin.—If this ukase does not produce the desired effect there seems to be nothing left for the President but to call out a regiment of cavalry to do service on the White House grounds and to capture and escort to the railroad depots of the Capital all persons who are suspected of the high crime and misdemeanor of asking for or expecting an office.

CLEVELAND'S UKASE.

Savannah News.—The President has made appointments that should have been made by members of his Cabinet. The Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury and in fact each of the other members of the Cabinet is ready to bear his full share of the burdens imposed by the office-seekers, and the President ought to let them select the men needed in their respective Departments.

WITH CLOSED DOORS.

Times-Star.—The vexed Sunday question at the World's Fair is no longer a dead-end and shut affair, but a sort of half-and-half. It is to be gates ajar for half price. But the burning question still remains. Will the gates to the White House be open on the first or any other day of the week? The office-seekers, like the Sabatarians, will have to resort to either a mass minus or a boycott if this thing continues much longer.

FACTS ABOUT THE FAIR.

Pittsburgh News.—Jackson Park, in which the Exposition is to be held, has a frontage on Lake Michigan of one and one-half miles, and contains 333 acres, seventy-seven of which are water. The Midway Plaisance is a mile long and 600 feet wide, and contains eighty acres more. There are thirty-nine Exposition Buildings proper, and a floor space of 190 acres. Adding the galleries there are 190.7 acres. Grouped around there are forty-four State and Territorial Buildings, eighteen buildings erected by foreign governments, and forty others for the minor purposes of the management, restaurants and advertising wares and enterprises. In the Midway Plaisance are the foreign villages, shops, etc. The visitor who would merely take a passing look at each of the vast array of exhibits must prepare to walk along 134 miles of aisles. Add to this the distance from one building to another, which must of necessity be traveled many times, and the distance to be covered will reach fully 150 miles.

WEATHER IS GETTING WARMER.

AND BEFORE MANY MORE MOONS SOMEBODY WILL WANT A LINEN DUSTER.

'Squire Martin's Mean Attempt to Muzzle the Press—What the Editor of "The Ledger" Thinks of Him, as Compared With the Other Members of the Court—Who's Been Monkeying With the Buss-Saw?

AND DON'T YOU FORGET IT

FOR WE WON'T LET YOU.

There is a bright side to every story and a silver lining even to the dark cloud hovering about the late session of the Court of Claims.

The better nature of this conservative body of men was vividly shown before the final adjournment through the instrumentality of two of its most prominent members—Squires O. N. Weaver of Minerva and William Luttrell of Helena.

These gentlemen generously and willingly admitted the right of the press to criticize the public actions of public men, the only prerogative exercised or asked for by the Legislature.

'Squire S. E. Martin villainously assumed the role of wonder-bifid-mean-man-man, allowed his feelings to overcome his faculties of reason, and with an excessive air of presumption moved to have the list of claims allowed by the Board published in but two of the court papers, contemptuously ignoring the court papers.

His motion elicited no approval from the other Magistrates, and his was the only vote "No" on the motion, gallantly championed by Squires Luttrell and Weaver to include all of the court papers.

It is gratifying to know that the motives of the Legislature were not mislaid by a vast majority of the Court whose course in this matter will be commended by the better element of the people.

If the article in the issue of Thursday caused the Court of Claims, or any member of it, to refrain from doing what he had, prior to that incident, thought right and proper, we are mistaken in our estimation of the character of some people.

However, we are safe to assert that there are not a dozen people in Mason county, outside of the Editor of The Bulletin, who believe any such statement as was made in that paper yesterday—namely: That there were several Magistrates who expressed themselves as having been in favor of donating $2,000 or $3,000 toward the construction of Limestone bridge.

It is an imputation upon the character of the men who compose the Board of Magistrates to intimate that they were swayed from the line of duty by an antagonistic article in a newspaper.

It was only our intention to criticize and not to offend, and that it was understood by the greater number of the gentlemen composing the Court of Claims is pleasing.
